

What makes a great space?

Place Game Workshop for Planners & PACs

Friday, September 13th

9:00am – 2:00pm

How can we make a public space into a better “place”? Fred and Kathy from PPS will host a Place Game in Bridgewater. Using their tools and techniques, this workshop will draw on participant’s experience and intuition about public space and help them to identify what is working and what can be improved upon based on how people are (or are not) using the space.

Agenda

9am – Introductions, overview of placemaking and description of the Place Game

10am – Place Game on King Street

12pm – Lunch and Wrap up

Location: Bridgewater, Nova Scotia

Meeting place: Bridgewater Fire Hall, 81 Dominion Street

Cost: $50 for LPPANS members/municipal staff; $25 for Planning Advisory Committee members or Councillors; $15 for students. (Maximum 30 spaces)

RSVP to Mackenzie Childs at mackenzie.childs@bridgewater.ca or 902-541-4386

Join Fred Kent and Kathy Madden, the founders of Project for Public Spaces, to discuss placemaking on the South Shore. Fred Kent is a leading authority on revitalizing city spaces, has worked on hundreds of projects and has offered technical assistance to communities internationally. Kathy Madden is an environmental designer who has directed over 300 research and urban design projects and training programs internationally. www.pps.org

Support provided by LPPANS

